

29th November 2017

Dear Parents and Carers,

Hyde Christmas Markets – Thursday 7th December 2017

It's that time of year again when our children are busy making their Christmas crafts to take to sell on our Christmas stall at Hyde Market on Thursday 7th December. Lots of the children have expressed interest in buying their own piece. As we cannot name goods for the market because they are open to sell to the public, we are offering the opportunity for these to be bought before they are sent to market.

If you are wanting to purchase what your child has made for the Christmas Market you will need to pay by Monday 4th December 2017.

If you are purchasing anything that is made fresh, this will be sent home on the day they are made.

Monday 4th December 2017 is the very last day for payment as the remaining items will be packed ready for transport to Hyde Market.

Any items left over from the market will be sold at the Christmas Fair on Friday 8th December 2017 and will be open to anybody to buy.
